What does this Institute hope to achieve?

- Name and clarify key principles of the rite: conversion, imitation, community and how to adapt these principles to experience with children and baptized candidates in the Catechumenate
- Introduce a method of critical thinking about the periods based on the rituals
- Invite reflection on pastoral care dimension of the various ministers involved in imitation
- Lead participants to discover how they can implement/strengthen a team approach
- Lead participants to grow in understanding the originating vision for the RCIA from Vat II: the principle of apprenticeship
